Notable features:

There are several such "playground/open spaces" in Poppleton. They are not useless but they could be more useful than they are. Children play on them and so are off the thoroughfares but they could be decorative, attractive and amenities.

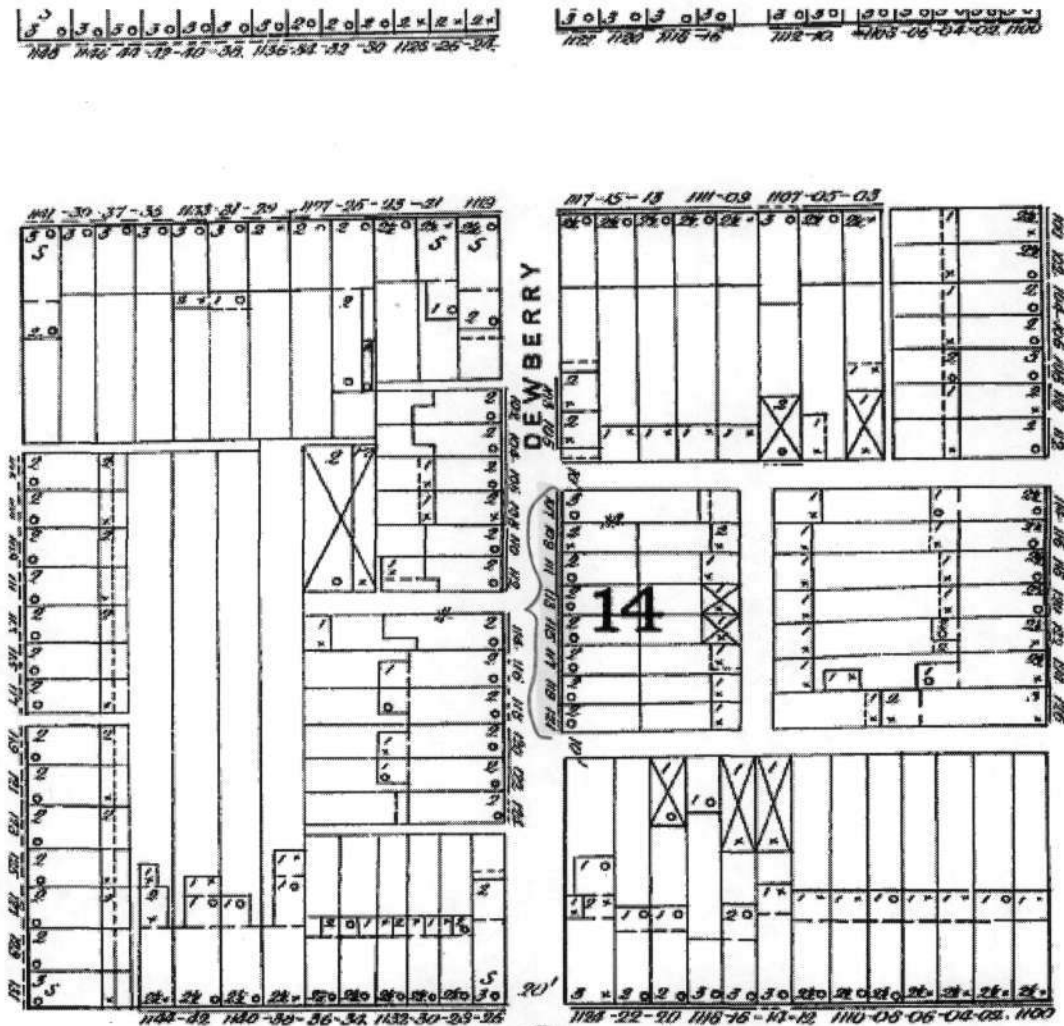

Environmental context:

Barren play lot devoid of equipment, trees, benches, etc. Houses on west of Carlton look out on this but other three sides have rears of houses facing playlot. See second picture for another use of play lot.
